CHARTER OF THE
RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE
OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF
FIRST TRACKS THERAPEUTICS, INC.

As adopted effective September 23, 2026

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Research and Development Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of First Tracks Therapeutics, Inc. (the "Company") is to advise the full Board on the Company's research and development ("R&D") strategies, including:

- advising on the Company's pipeline, R&D activities, and relevant scientific issues; and
- advising on emerging trends and developments in science, regulatory, pharmaceutical R&D, as well as their potential impact on the Company, to help assure the Company makes well-informed choices in committing scientific resources.

II. MEMBERSHIP

The Committee will consist of at least two members of the Board. All members of the Committee will be appointed by the Board and will serve at the Board's discretion. Resignation or removal of a director from the Board, for whatever reason, shall automatically constitute resignation or removal, as applicable, from the Committee. The Board may appoint a member of the Committee to serve as the chairperson of the Committee (the "Chairperson"). If the Board does not appoint a Chairperson, the Committee members may designate a Chairperson by majority vote. In the event that the Committee has a Chairperson, the Chairperson will set the agenda for, preside over and conduct the proceedings of, Committee meetings. The Company's Chief Executive Officer and/or Chief Medical Officer shall attend each meeting of the Committee.

III. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The principal responsibilities and duties of the Committee are set forth below. These responsibilities and duties are set forth as a guide, with the understanding that the Committee will carry them out in a manner that is appropriate given the Company's needs and circumstances. The Committee may perform such other functions as are consistent with its purpose and applicable law, rules and regulations, as the Board may request or prescribe, or as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate consistent with its purpose. The Committee is advisory in nature and is empowered to have free and open communication with, and to serve as a resource to, executive management so that the Company may stay apprised of scientific matters and developments that affect the Company's business.

The Committee will:

- Advise the Board on the overall direction and effectiveness of the Company's R&D strategy, by evaluating management's progress and performance in achieving its goals and objectives and in mitigating associated risks;

Regularly review the Company's research candidates, clinical programs and pipeline, as well as assess its progress in achieving its long-term strategic research and development goals and objectives;

- Identify, monitor and assess significant new, emerging trends and developments in science, regulatory, R&D, as well as their potential impact on the Company's programs, plans and policies;

- Review, evaluate and make recommendations to the Board and executive management regarding the Company's current and potential internal and external programs as they relate to the products and technologies of the Company and third parties, including potential licenses, acquisitions, dispositions, investments and collaborations;

- Perform any other activities and functions as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its responsibilities in assisting the Board in its oversight of the Company's R&D activities.

IV. MEETINGS

The Committee will meet as often as it deems necessary or appropriate, at such times and places as may be determined by the Chairperson and/or the Company's Chief Executive Officer, in order to perform its responsibilities. A quorum of the Committee for the transaction of business will be a majority of its members. Other members of the Board who are not members of the Committee, specific members of management and external advisers may be invited to attend all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate.

V. MINUTES AND REPORTS

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings and will file such minutes with the minutes of the meetings of the Board. The Committee will regularly report to the Board on its activities.
